Sir:

The undersigned Bachelor of Science in Information Technology (BSIT) students respectfully request your approval to deploy our Capstone Project, “NEXIAM: A Role-Based College Admission Testing System for the Guidance and Registrar Offices at ISPSC Tagudin Campus,” at the campus Guidance Office.

The deployment entails system installation, web application configuration, account provisioning, user orientation, and administering our research instrument during pilot testing to gather feedback from designated office staff, program heads, and participating students. All data collected and processed will remain strictly confidential in compliance with data privacy policies and ethical guidelines.

We sincerely appreciate your support for this implementation, which aims to advance the institution's digital transformation and streamline admission testing workflows across the Guidance and Registrar Offices.

Respectfully yours,
